

Broadloom Carpet Lay-A-Way Plan. This is not SCARE SELLING. It is a fact that carpet prices are going up! Up! Up! Raw wool is 4 times the price today that it was in 1947. One mill says "Rising wool costs compel us to raise prices on June 19th as much as 7½ to 10%." Practically all carpet mills will raise prices July 1st, 1950. To guarantee present prices use the Carpet Mart Lay-A-Way plan, where a small deposit will hold your broadloom carpeting until you are ready for installation. Your order can be cancelled without cost or obligation.

The LEADER

Introduces
Joseph Platin

There's the saying that "A woman's hair is her crowning glory" and women in this country lead the world in its care and styling. Joseph Platin, better known as Mr. Joseph, has created styles for some of the most beautiful women in the world. It has been his lifetime work for twenty-two years.

JOSEPH PLATIN

Joseph is a true artist with all the talent and the creative spirit of the painter and the sculptor. And like other true artists, men who create fine and beautiful things, he finds satisfaction in the final viewing of his finished masterpiece. Yet, although his world of activity is centered around women, his private life is filled with masculinity. The name of Joe Platin was well-known in professional soccer circles. He was quite adept in boxing and other sports. Joe is a World War II army vet.

Mr. Joseph is being "introduced" this week because he enjoyed a reputation of being one of the top-notch hair stylists in the country today. This record dates back to the recognition of his first style creations in Bucharest and other European centers. He was the first to demonstrate machineless permanent waving at the Hotel Penn in New York City, and the clientele at this New York salon, (Anthony-Joseph of Madison Ave.) included the best groomed women of society and the stage.

As owner of the "Freepost Beauty Shop" on W. Merrick rd. in Freeport, he calls it "the shop with the red door." Mr. Joseph has finally realized a wish that is ten years old. It was always his dream to leave the nerve-racking activity of the big city and settle in a real home town. After looking throughout Long Island, he found the answer in Freeport. Now he can easily travel to New York if he wishes to give demonstrations for which there are innumerable requests, or he can enjoy his work in his own personalized shop. Many of the beautiful women who appear on television have had their hair styled by Joseph. He employs three girls and five operators.

He is a member of various organizations including the Knights of Pythias, Empire State Master Hairdressers Association and the Nassau Fashion Guild. "A woman's hair is her crowning glory" and they spend millions to keep it that way. Mr. Joseph of the Freepost Beauty Shop, now only 40 years old, is one of the foremost artists of his profession.

Nassau Legion To Meet Here Saturday; Board To Speed Plans On New School

Proposition is Carried
By 1,747 to 379; Giblyn
Lauds Citizens Group

The voters of the Freeport school district having approved by a vote of 1,747 to 379 to the $1,300,000 bond issue to finance the erection of a school on the South Bayview avenue site, the Board of Education plans to speed the preliminaries so as to get the building under construction as quickly as possible.

Supporters of the plan were elated over the almost 4 to 1 victory scored by the proposition. The only surprise was that of the 2,266 who took the trouble to register to qualify to vote, 419 persons failed to show up at the polls to do so.

Following the announcement, of the result of the election, President Leo F. Giblyn of the Board of Education quickly gave credit for the victory to the Citizens Committee headed by William Allyn and W. E. Watson as well as the workers of the various Parent-Teacher Association groups who worked to get the voters out.

Working plans for the 23 classroom building, including two kindergarten rooms, will be drawn, bids advertised for and bonds issued. Members of the Board of Education hope to get the building underway early in the fall.

Throng at Hearing On Assessment Plan For Parking Fields

Five Zones Established;
Based on Nearness to Plots; Protests Filed

There was a large turnout at the hearing on plans for levying the assessment to cover the $593,300 cost of developing the system of municipal parking fields conducted by the Village Board Monday night. After hearing numerous speakers, Mayor Robert L. Dossie announced the Board would take the matter under advisement before taking final action.

The hearing on the plan was explained that at a hearing held in October, 1948, it was voted to split the cost, 75 percent being levied against the benefited area and 25 percent on the Village at large, and nothing said at the hearing would have any effect on this plan.

The assessment areas were indicated on a map shown at the hearing. Five zones have been established based on the nearness of property to the fields. The first zone, indicated by green, included property directly accessible to the fields, where the assessment will be based on 100 per cent of the property value, or $17.50 for each $100; the second zone, red, 400 feet from an exit or entrance, 50 per cent; the third zone, blue, 800 feet, 30 percent; $5.25 per hundred; the fourth zone, brown, 1,200 feet, 15 percent; $2.62 per hundred; and the fifth, white, 5 per cent, 87 cents per hundred.

Henry P. Staples, appearing for the trustees of the Long Island Rail Road, protested the assessment levied against the company, saying he did not believe the railroad would be benefitted by the fields, and that it was right of way property and not subject to assessments and he pleaded the company was in bankruptcy and could not pay its taxes let alone assessments.

Donors to Receive Credit
Otto J. Christ appeared for the East End Taxpayers Association composed of home owners in Bennington Park, asking that they be given consideration when the final levies are fixed.

Mail Carrier Lunching on His Route

At Fischer, letter carrier of the Freeport Post Office, takes time out for a bite at noon while making the one residential daily delivery recently instituted in the Post Office Department's economy move. He just must have strength to finish his route. Other postmen also have to take their luncheon on the fly, as many Freeport residents receive their mail during the afternoon. The number of routes in the Village has been reduced from 28 to 20.

F. H. S. Commencement Exercises At Stadium On Sunday Afternoon

"Our Basic Freedoms" is the theme of the 67th annual commencement exercises of the Freeport High School to be held in the Municipal Stadium Sunday at 5 P. M. The program will be opened with the band playing as a professional "Entrance March of the Peers" from "Tollan" by Sir Arthur Sullivan.

The invocation will be given by the Rev. David G. Jaxhelmer, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church. Following the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," by the audience, the Girls' Chorus will give "The Nation's Prayer," by Cesar Frank, with Jeanne Lyon accompanying.

Then will come three talks, "Our Political Heritage," by James Magidson, salutarian; "Our Key to Future Security," by Virginia Carpenter, and "A Free Economy," by Richard Mayer, the valedictorian. The Girls' Chorus will then sing, "Song of Faith," by Robert Giblin.

Dr. John W. Dodd will award the prizes and the band will give F. W. Meacham's "American Patrol," as arranged by Paul Yoder. Principal Martin M. Mansperger will present the class for graduation to Leo F. Giblyn, president of the Board of Education, and he will present the diplomas. The Rev. Mr. Jaxhelmer will pronounce the benediction after which the recessional, the grand march from Verdi's "Aida" will be played by the orchestra, as the graduates march from the field.

J. Maynard Wettlaufer will direct the band and Miss Miriam Roberts the orchestra.

Board Holds Hearings On Rezoning 2 Plots On South Grove St.

Grants One at Atlantic Ave., Delays Other When Application is Opposed

Hearings were conducted by the Village Board Monday night on proposals to change the zoning of two sections of South Grove st., from Residence A to Business A. One involved the east side of the street, from Atlantic ave., part way south to Ray st. A group of residents of the area backed the application of Charles F. Mountcastle for the extension by 90 feet to include his property, with a 40-foot frontage, so that he would be enabled to construct a two story building, with a store on the first floor. As a result it was voted to re-zone the block from Atlantic ave., to within 60 feet of Ray st.

The other application, filed by Charles J. Korech, created a storm of protests by members of the Atlantic-South Civic Association and other residents of the area. (Continued on Page 13)

C. Howard Larsen, Story Post Member is Slated to Be Elected Commander

William Clinton Story Post, A.L., will be host at the Nassau County convention to be held here Saturday. Plans for the event were completed at the semi-monthly meeting Friday night in the Dugout.

Business sessions will be held in the Freeport High School auditorium at 10 A.M. and 1 P.M. C. Howard Larsen, a past commander of the local Legion, is slated to be elected County commander at the later session. Speakers will include Congressman Leonard W. Hall and the Rev. Edward Carney, of Lawrence, Mass., the national chaplain. At 7:30 P.M., supper, limited to 250, will be served in the Dugout. It will be prepared and served by members of Story Post.

Wreck and Vulture, 832, of Nassau County, 40 and 8, will have its annual meeting Friday night with William C. Hausler, chief de guerre in charge. Officers will be elected and a class of 22 is to be initiated. Delegations are expected from groups extending from Dutchess county to Montauk Point.

Cesar J. Puliz presided Friday night for his first time as commander. Charles F. Mountcastle, membership officer, reported a paid-up membership of 560, which means that for the first time in several years, Story Post will not carry off the honors of having the largest enrollment in the county. Mr. Mountcastle appealed for the post to double its present membership next year.

Welfare Officer E. Willard Heland issued an appeal for contributions totaling $800 to finance the annual pilgrimage to Kings Park on Sunday, July 16. Story Post has been assigned a record quota of 93,000 cigarettes for 1950. Fish bowls are being installed in local stores to enable the public to have a party in the project. Checks may be mailed to the post, Mr. Heland said. He also reported that Past Commander Gerald Robson, who suffered an infection of the face, had returned to his home in Levittown after a stay in Meadowbrook Hospital.

Commander Puliz and his staff will be installed by Mr. Larsen on Thursday night, July 7.

Wayne Marshall, chosen as Story Post's Boy's State representative, will leave for Hamilton, N.Y., Sunday aboard the Empire State Express to attend the event to be conducted next week at Colgate University.

VILLAGE BOARD LISTS SUMMER MEETING DATES

The Village Board at its meeting Monday night in the Municipal Building decided to meet only once a month during the summer. The dates are as follows: Monday, July 10; Monday, Aug. 21, and Monday Sept. 18.

WHELAN'S DRUG STORE OPEN ALL DAY SUNDAY

The Whelan Drug Store, 64 South Main st., will remain open Sunday after the other pharmacies in Freeport close at 2 P.M. The telephone is Freeport 8-0083.

LEADER Starts Baldwin Circulation

With this issue, THE LEADER expands its circulation into the northeast section of Baldwin adjoining the northwest section of Freeport.

This seems the natural thing to do since these sections of Baldwin and Freeport are so closely allied. Residents of Freeport (the N.W. section) are in the Baldwin School District. Both are south shore areas and THE LEADER will continue to stress the advantages of shopping in the fine south Nassau shops.

THE LEADER already has excellent coverage in Freeport, with larger distribution in Freeport than any other paper. Its expansion into the Baldwin area will add greatly to its circulation which has already more than doubled since May 1 and will add immeasurably to its influence in south Nassau.

The Editor's Notebook

My mind is on politics today . . . that is, national politics . . . after a while it is going to be too hot to think about such things, but in the meantime I notice that Pres. Truman has been claiming that never before has the country been in such excellent shape as it is now. And today the Republicans make it sound as though we were about to roll over Niagara Falls in a leaky barrel. Obviously, both can't be right. We can with almost equal certainty be fairly sure that neither is right. The true inclination of our fortunes is not to be found in Mr. Truman's cheery optimism any more than unrelieved gloom. Each is painting a picture he thinks will be most likely to attract voters.

Big guns sound these days in Washington as Senator McCarthy calls a statesman, a communist and the statesman fires back "you're a liar." One thing sure is this. If McCarthy is right everyone will sing his praises. But if he is wrong the wolves will howl for his blood. . . . We don't know much about these things, but if the State Dept. is as pure as it claims to be, just where did this Hiss, Coplon, and Co. come from?

When Harry Truman took office five years ago he humbly said he would succeed with the help of God and the prayers of the people. . . . Now he says he has succeeded through his own efforts.

In the meantime, the Republicans would do better to concern themselves less with Mr. Truman's popularity and more with their own popularity.

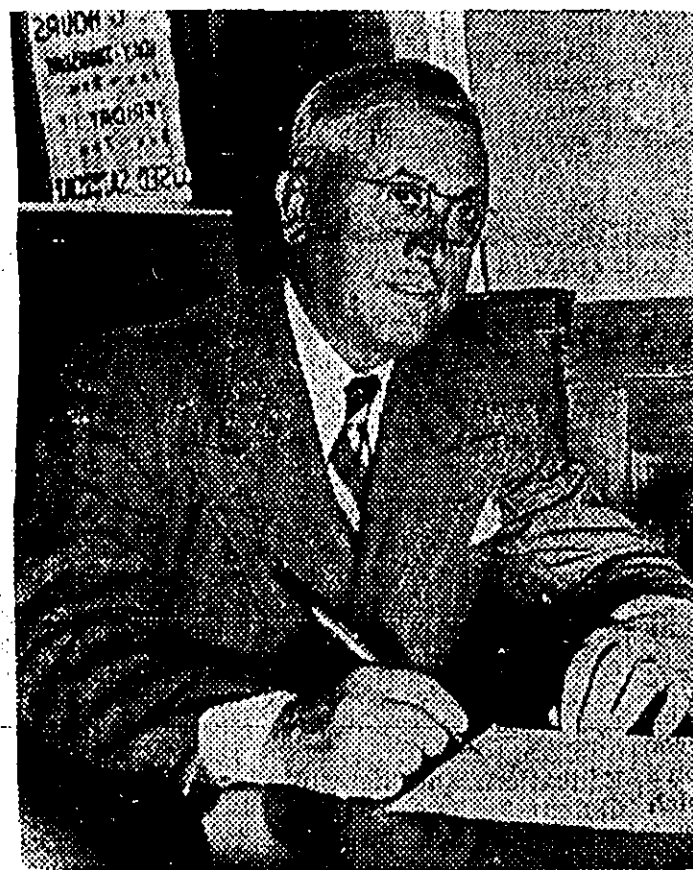

Walter V. Bedell Willed Entire Estate to Widow

Walter V. Bedell, 130 Pearsall ave., who died on May 3, left his entire estate to his widow, Mrs. Dorothy M. Bedell, in his will filed for probate with Surrogate Leon D. Howell in Mineola. According to the petition, the estate is valued at upward of $2,000 in personal property.

Mr. Bedell was a long time member of the cotton brokerage firm of Anderson, Clayton & Co., and a chiropractic. Worden E. Winne, attorney represented the estate.

A petition for the administration of the estate of Mrs. Marie Freundt, 98 Maple pl., who died on May 5, is pending in the Surrogate's office. She left an estate valued at approximately $5,000 in real estate and nominal personal property. She is survived by her husband, August, and a daughter, Emma C. Gibson, of Quakertown, Pa. James A. Warner appeared for the estate.

W. F. DeMott, superintendent of Buildings, explained the duties of his office to the members. He said the Building Department had supervision of construction and alterations of buildings, plumbing, zoning, signs and oil burners. He said also that as the representative of the State Department of Labor, he had jurisdiction over all places of assembly, including theatres, restaurants and bowling alleys. Under state regulations, he added these places had to be inspected at least twice a year, but that he had these inspections made about every three months.

Charlotte Carver Opera Guild Entry Receives Belated Honorable Mention

Charlotte Ann Carver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Carver, 188 Whaley st., has just received word from the Metropolitan Opera Guild that she received an honorable mention in the Guild's operatic setting and costume design contest which she entered early this year. Though her entry was shown in an exhibition at Adelphi College, Garden City, and is on view in the Guild's headquarters in Manhattan, through some oversight Miss Carver did not receive word of the honorable mention until a few days ago. The notification was accompanied by a letter of apology.

Charlotte, a Freeport High School student, is also studying in the Parsons School of Design in Manhattan. It was not until the last moment that she accidentally learned of the contest. She decided to submit a design of a scene from the opera "Carmen" as her entry. Spending a Saturday in Manhattan getting data for her design, she worked all day Sunday to complete it and delivered it on Monday.

That was the last she heard of the matter and she had charged her efforts up to experience, when she finally learned her entry had received recognition. Charlotte's friends feel that if she had had more time to prepare her exhibit she would have achieved greater honors. More than a 1,000 art students entered the contest. Officials of the Guild have asked permission to keep the design. Had Miss Carver been in the art class at the high school she would have learned about the contest sooner, as Mrs. Peter J. Guthy, local representative of the Guild, notified the school authorities, but no member of the class entered the competition.

THE REV. DAVID G. JAXHEIMER

Following the morning service in Christ Lutheran Church Sunday there will be a congregational meeting at which action will be taken on the resignation of the pastor, the Rev. David G. Jaxheimer. Pastor Jaxheimer was elected assistant to the Rev. Dr. Frank R. Knobel, president, at the recent annual session of the United Lutheran Synod of New York in Kingston, and on his return submitted his resignation as pastor of the local church which he has served for nearly 20 years.

Pastor Jaxheimer will preach at the 10:45 A.M. service on "A Rain-Through the Rain," and at the 9 o'clock Matins on "Onward and Upward."

Evening Service Planned At First Baptist Church

Beginning July 2, the Rev. Dr. Louis H. Losch, pastor of the First Baptist Church, is to conduct an informal evening service starting at 8 o'clock. There will be singing and a brief period of Bible study. This service is being planned in response to the requests of a group of young people, but attendance is open to all who desire to attend.

How to Attract New Industries to Freeport

ARTICLE III
Harnessing Action to Build a Greater Freeport for Tomorrow

By DAVID M. MOLSHROOP

The old adage that you have to creep and crawl before you walk applies to community advance. The Freeport researchers on the various committees may find plenty of things wrong that must be corrected. Does Freeport need to clean up, paint up and repair to make it more attractive? Does Freeport really have enough parks, playgrounds and other recreational facilities to make leisure time constructive? Or do we rely too much on Jones Beach, Point Lookout, or our State Parks? Does Freeport need further planning and zoning to make it more livable and protect real estate values?

The best place to look for new industry is right at home. For example Worcester, Mass., since 1945 has attracted 85 new industries. Eighty-four of the 85 are home-owned industries and grew out of a program to provide Worcester with goods and services people could use at home. Most of Freeport's present industries sprang from local needs or local resources. These local industries have already proven their adaptability to local Freeport conditions. Community is far better off with 20 locally owned plants employing 50 men each than one absentee owned plant with 1,000 employees. Local owners go to the same church with their people, their children go to the same school with employee children, they live 24 hours a day with their people and have an understanding heart and best know the problems facing their people.

Expanding existing plants. Freeport industry can be helped by reducing or filling jobs in seasonal business, procuring sub contracts, aiding by providing additional risk capital and expanding markets of local products.

Almost every successful business enterprise today grew out of an idea some individual had in some community not too different from Freeport. Today right in Freeport are people with ideas. Many of the ideas may be impractical but some of these ideas would pay worthwhile dividends for the citizens of Freeport, who are willing to back these ideas and create a new business enterprise for Freeport. These ideas need planning. In article four we will give illustrations how other communities have financed industry.

In bringing new plants to Freeport from the outside the Development Committee must first locate prospects and then evaluate the prospects. The financing of new plants is of paramount importance. Freeport must be sold to the prospects we desire to locate in Freeport. New industries may mean growth in population growth for Freeport. It will definitely mean expansion of local income. It will provide opportunities for people tired of commuting to New York City the chance to work near home. It will mean additional employment opportunities for our young people coming out of high school and college. It will show to all our neighbors that Freeport is determined to do more than its share to help our Nation keep strong through an ever expanding National economy.

Next week's article will provide case examples of what other towns have done and are doing to attract new industries.

Molloy Council Bazaar Being Held This Week

K. of C. Seeks Funds to Build Clubhouse on Site To Be Acquired Shortly

The annual bazaar of Bishop Molloy Council, K. of C., got under way Monday night at Sunrise highway and Bayview ave., the site of last year's successful venture. The bazaar will run for a full week, closing Saturday night.

The bazaar is the one big fund raising effort of the council in its drive for a clubhouse of its own. This project is near realization, however, as at a meeting Friday night, it was voted to organize a Columbian Club to acquire a site on Bayview st. near South Main, as a site for the building. Robert Harlan was named chairman of the group.

Construction of the long-awaited clubhouse will get under way shortly if this year's affair comes anywhere near expectations. Grand Knight Richard A. Hungerford has appointed John Muldowney general chairman of the bazaar and a large committee has been working diligently for weeks in preparation for the event. Muldowney was recently elected to head the Council for the next fraternal year which starts on July 1st, and he is hopeful that the new clubhouse will become a reality during his term of office.

Cancer Poster Contest Entries Shown in Library

Two posters created by Freeport High School students in the 1950 poster contest sponsored by the Nassau County Cancer Committee are among those on exhibition in the High School room of the Freeport Memorial Library.

First prize was awarded to Blanche Holmlin, East Rockaway High School, for her startlingly simple but effective poster "Face the Facts About Cancer"; second prize was awarded to Melanie Kunz, Garden City High School, and third to Robert Strobel, Valley Stream High School. Honorable mention was given to Roger Sammis, of Freeport, and Sue Metzler of Garden City for their excellent work.

Other posters on display include those made by Fern Mittlemark, Woodmere High School; Irene Marino, Seawanhaka High School; Ernest Fraiser and Alan Bishop of Oyster Bay High School; James H. Well and John Werbach, Garden City High School; Katherine Kreisler, St. Dominic's High School; David Copeland, Freeport High School; Alexander Lane and Joyce Howell, Lynbrook High School and Vincent Abbatiello, Westbury High School.

Plans were announced for a card party and luncheon to be given by Unity Temple, Pythian Sisters in the Stevens House, Baldwin, Tuesday at noon. Mrs. Jules Mazor, 255 Woodside ave. is chairman of the ticket committee. Mrs. Harold W. Battin is chairman of special events. The Mitchell Field and East Meadow baseball teams will play a game for the benefit of the campaign at the Stadium Wednesday night.

P. B. C. Station Wagon Drive Ends Saturday; $800 Needed

By DIRECTOR JOSEPH ROMEIK

The Freeport Police Boys' Club drive for a station wagon has three wheels bought and now needs the fourth. The campaign will end Saturday and to date, we have nearly $2,200 towards our goal of $3,000. This will purchase a twelve passenger, roomy International station wagon with plenty of space for baseball and other equipment necessary to carry out the many P.B.C. activities at home and away.

We definitely need this station wagon to transport our baseball teams to the different fields outside of our Freeport P.B.C. League, our basketball teams in the Nassau County P.B.C. Leagues during the Summer and Fall, our water polo teams to Jones Beach, our soccer teams to inter-city soccer league games, our boys interested in boxing to tournaments and exhibitions all over the Island, and to transport the outboard sea-sled boys who become so famous that they were recognized by Warner Brothers who had Virginia Mayo present the winning boy a trophy at a match held at Guy Lombardo's East Point House as part of the premiere of "The Girl from Jones Beach," last year. These sea-sled races are all run out of Freeport in such places as Northport, 90 miles from here, Port Jefferson, Moriches, and so forth. Distance doesn't mean a thing to these boys—they want to race!

All these groups have to be transported. We thank the interested citizens who voluntarily donated their car services, and the Meadow Brook National Bank of Freeport which allows us to use the Bank suburban for the transportation of boys after banking hours and on weekends. We also want to thank the Bee, Roosevelt, Semke, and Hempstead Bus Lines that have aided us in transporting larger groups to baseball games, outings, the circus, and so on.

All this cooperation shows the real need for the Freeport Police Boys' Club and the free and active interest of our Freeport citizens indicates their realization of it. If you haven't sent in your donation as yet, you'd better hurry or you will miss this opportunity to be an associate member of our Freeport Police Boys' Club and a part owner of our new station wagon.

Starting Tuesday all P.B.C. members, regardless of number, will be given free admission to the stock car races on Tuesday night and midgels on Friday nights, as long as the season lasts. Promoter Jake Kedenberg announced today. The boys will meet at the press gate at 8 o'clock when Patrolman Romeika will be in charge.

High School P.T.A. Head Names Committee Heads

Mrs. Herbert Bond, who has succeeded George T. Yarrow as president of the Junior-Senior High School Parent-Teacher Association, announced the committee chairman for the new year at a meeting of the executive board in her home, 418 Pine st.

They are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Erwin, membership; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Marshall, program; Mrs. J. Wesley Southard, publicity; Mrs. John W. Dodd, Founders' Day; Dana H. Smith, legislation, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Burkhardt, student welfare.

Tentative plans for next year were considered.

Seaman Ave. Kindergarten Open For Next Year's New Registrants

For the benefit of children whose parents plan to enter them in the Kindergarten in September, the Kindergarten room of the Seaman ave. school is being kept open through June so the youngsters may visit it and become familiar with the surroundings in which they will find themselves in the fall.

Principal William S. Hughes explained at the final meeting of the Pre-School Section of the Parent-Teacher Association in the school cafeteria, that this type of preparatory meeting had proven very successful in the past two years and had enabled mothers and their children to approach their first day of school with eagerness rather than trepidation.

He also informed the group that because of this and many other innovations the Pre-School Section of the school is considered the outstanding unit of its kind in New York State.

Mrs. Angelo Amatulli, recently elected vice-chairman, presided. Principal Hughes, Miss Edith Waters, school nurse; Mrs. Harry Duff, dental hygienist, and Mrs. Janet Doyle and Miss Betty Patterson, kindergarten teachers, briefed the large gathering of mothers on the routine to be followed by their children during the school year starting in September.

Pamphlets on "Protection for Birthdays" were extended Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. Mildred Blacker, Mrs. Steinheuser, Charles Shelly, Mrs. Virginia Thom, Mrs. Eleanor Combs, Mrs. Margaret Herpich, Mrs. Lola Shaw and Mrs. Dorothy Hoffman.

A play, "Needle, Thread and Jabber," was presented with Mrs. Gladys Dowie, Mrs. Katherine Steinheuser, Mrs. Estelle Kelm, Mrs. Theresa V. Thaxton, Mrs. Lilyan Tremble, Mrs. Elva Bird, Mrs. Dorothy Shelly, Mrs. Combs and Mrs. Gladys Leck in the cast.

Plans were made for a picnic which was held at the home of Mrs. Tremble, 423 Edna st. West Hempstead, on Saturday; a dessert bridge on June 28 at the home of Mrs. Combs, Willis ave., Merrick, and a jamboree in the fall with Mrs. Blacker as chairman. A one hour followed with Mrs. Hoffman as chairman.

Weyrauch Outlines Taft-Hartly Act At Freeport Republican Club Meeting

Village Counsel Martin H. Weyrauch described the differences between the Wagner Act and the Taft-Hartley Law regulating labor and management in a talk at the June meeting of the Freeport Republican Club in the Elks clubhouse.

Mr. Weyrauch characterized the former as a one-way street and the latter as a two-way street, denying that despite all the efforts of President Harry S. Truman and labor leaders to have it repealed, it was otherwise than a fair bit of legislation.

Mr. Weyrauch described the condition of labor through the development of the country, showing how in the early days each person acted as an individual, employers having a complete say about the hours, wages and conditions of their help.

However, with the development of large aggregations of labor, employees came to feel that they were not getting all the things to which they were entitled. This resulted, he continued, in the development of strong unions and eventually the adoption of Congress of the Wagner act, under which it was assumed labor was getting a "raw deal" and which made it impossible for management to do certain things.

A brand new set of offenses called the unfair labor practice was constituted under the law. The National Labor Relations Board, which was given power to administer the act, did so in a manner discriminatory, unfair and sometimes vicious manner so far as management was concerned, the speaker said.

Mr. Weyrauch added the Taft-Hartley act banned the closed shop, substituting a union shop, which provided that though a man need not belong to the union when he obtained employment he must join one within three months after getting a job. He pointed out that before a union can be certified, its officers must take an oath to the effect they do not belong to the community party. He added that the books and records of unions must be open to the public and that the right of obtaining injunctions was given both employers and unions. He commended the success of the bureau of arbitration and mediation which has been set up under the act, saying that while it had not been able to prevent strikes in the coal, steel and motor industries, it had done a salutary job in settling small strikes.

It was decided to hold a meeting on Thursday, July 13, in connection with which there will be a penny sale. The annual picnic will be held at Point Lookout on Saturday, Aug. 12.

The paid-up membership of the club was announced as totaling $24. VanBaar Brown, Miss Mary Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Frederick, Lawrence B. Kelly, Harold McKay, George Porter Smith, Michael Kerman, James Lyons and Norman H. Appleton were received as members. President Ralph L. Marshall presided. Hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. Elfreda Terry, Mrs. Frances Lyons, Mrs. Virginia Lorenze, Mrs. Ruth Taylor, Mrs. Josephine Sanrocco and Mrs. Eleanor Hammer.

Freeport Moves Forward

Residents of Freeport may well take pride in the overwhelming vote cast last Thursday for the new school. By the substantial vote of 4 to 1, in which all sections of Freeport took part, a tremendous victory for the future welfare of this community was assured . . . we could have done nothing finer.

As great as is this victory, more important still is the great civic interest shown by the citizens of Freeport in public improvement. THE PEOPLE CAME OUT TO VOTE, and in this fact lies the hope and the future of our great America. Just so long as the people of America take an interest in good government and will exercise their privilege of voting (as did the citizens of Freeport in this recent opportunity) we will have a great America.

Congratulations then to the people of Freeport for their vote for this much needed new school . . . and DOUBLE CONGRATULATIONS for exercising in such large numbers their sacred privilege of voting.

Such citizenship speaks well for the future of America.

Declaration of Conscience

Residents of New York State, Republicans and Democrats alike may well take pride in the fact that one of their Senators, Irving M. Ives, was one of those to join with five others in the "declaration of conscience" drawn up by Senator Margaret Chase Smith. It seems to this paper a distinguished declaration which, if adopted by all Americans might serve to dispel the miasma of doubt and confusion which characterizes these days, and bring us all out once more into the clear air of real American life.

With the thought that there may be some busy people who skimmed through it in the daily paper last week, THE LEADER is reprinting it for a second reading and more sober thought:

"1. We are Republicans. But we are Americans first. It is as Americans that we express our concern with the growing confusion that threatens the security and stability of our country. Democrats and Republicans alike have contributed to that confusion.

"2. The Democratic administration has initially created the confusion by its lack of effective leadership, by its contradictory grave warnings and optimistic assurances, by its complacency to the threat of Communism here at home, by its oversensitiveness to rightful criticism, by its petty bitterness against its critics.

"3. Certain elements of the Republican party have materially added to this confusion in the hopes of riding the Republican party to victory through the selfish political exploitation of fear, bigotry, ignorance and intolerance. There are enough mistakes of the Democrats for Republicans to criticize constructively without resorting to political smears.

"4. To this extent, Democrats and Republicans alike have unwittingly, but undeniably, played directly into the Communist design of 'confuse, divide and conquer.'

"5. It is high time that we stopped thinking politically as Republicans and Democrats about elections and started thinking patriotically as Americans about national security based on individual freedom. It is high time that we all stopped being tools and victims of totalitarian techniques—techniques that, if continued here unchecked, will surely end what we have come to cherish as the American way of life."

Ray Clements

Letters to The Editor

Dear Mr. Clements:
With nice weather come the car accidents involving tiny children. A Nassau Daily of June 8th reports two deaths, one of a four-year-old in Malverne and one of a two-year-old in Wantagh, playing on their own blocks—the two-year-old in front of his own home. Why wait until children die to do something about making suburban communities safer for playing youngsters?

Green Acres and Loft Estates have the sensible layout—no thru streets. In Freeport with no playgrounds for school age children, the authorities could post "No Through Traffic" signs on residential blocks.

Children will visit back and forth across the street and at early ages, trust adults to take care of their welfare. The traffic drivers, often using residential streets to beat the traffic lights on main thoroughfares, are an increasing menace.

CORNELIUS FREEMAN

Editor, THE LEADER:

What is happening to Amateur Softball at Jones Beach State Park? After approximately sixteen years of good amateur softball representation, Freeport boys are unjustly eliminated by an unsound elimination rating system. The Freeport DeMoy's softball team, whose roster includes sixteen uniformed players, four of whom are good starting pitchers and five of whom have played at Jones Beach State Park anywhere from eleven to sixteen years, were eliminated by a definitely unfair rating board.

In winning a brilliantly played elimination game, both offensively and defensively, against the highly regarded Carlos Jewellers, the Freeport DeMoy's were apparently judged with prejudice. The fact, that one of the newly acquired teams has made such a miserable showing by losing its two league games by the devastating scores of 4 to 1 and 18 to 4, bears out the irregular method of selecting teams. This team also lost its elimination game and was not uniformed for their opening game. One of the higher officials at Jones Beach assured me that the teams were judged by their play on the field, their general appearance, their hustle, the past record of both teams and players, the number of hits or errors in the elimination game and whether victorious or not.

To further supplement the unjust decision made by the selection board, one of the newly selected teams was just able to put nine men on the field on opening day, plus the fact that two of their pitchers had to alternate between pitching and playing the field twice. Freeport with a population of almost 30,000 is denied representation at Jones Beach State Park, yet smaller communities like Mineola and Hicksville have two teams to represent them.

BERNARD CIOTTI, Mgr. DeMoy Softball Team

Dear Mr. Clements:

I wish to thank you for the excellent manner in which you supported the proposal of the Freeport Board of Education for a new elementary school on Bayview Avenue.

A local newspaper such as THE LEADER renders a distinctive service to the community which it serves by leadership of this kind. The wide circulation which THE LEADER enjoys made it possible to acquaint the greatest number of citizens with the facts which make it so vital that this new school be voted at this time. The Board of Education, the citizens committee, and all who helped in this forward-looking and much needed project for the children of this community appreciate your interest.

LEO F. GIBLYN, Pres. Board of Education

Call Freeport 9-3302 To Get Doctor Quickly

The emergency medical service planned by the Nassau County Medical Society has been placed in operation, and Ralph Horton, Jr., public relations director, this week announced the telephone numbers of physicians on whom calls can be made. The local number is FREEPORT 9-3302.

In doing so he called attention to the fact that such calls are to be made for emergency use only, by those who do not have a family physician and are not to be used in cases where the emergency is caused by an auto accident, acts of violence or other causes where the police should be called first.

AN URGENT APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE OF FREEPORT . . . The citizens of this community have been very generous in donating to all the charitable drives that have been conducted in our village this year. We all realize that there have been quite a few—but can anyone say that any single one was not a worthy cause? There is one campaign however that should be a little closer to us because all the monies collected remain right here in Freeport; serving many people in many ways. This request is made asking for all to help by donating a little something; whatever you can afford, to the 1950 FREEPORT SALVATION ARMY DRIVE to raise $5,000.

Please give and remember that your contributions will help Major Ernest W. Newton provide a little hope and joy to many less fortunate right here in Freeport. Let's keep up the excellent record we have achieved and make it our duty to help the Salvation Army reach its goal. Send something now to: Salvation Army, P.O. Box 725, Freeport.

LEADER'S DIGEST . . . Well-known Sunrise Hwy. merchant bought the big-frontage building in which he's located. (This was a surprise and done quietly.) . . . A local rehabilitated citizen from "Volmer's Villa" sundries Sheriff Al Volmer as top man. Trade he learned while doing stunts now keeps him legit. . . . Annual summer traffic hazard: The sport-short-clad cuties whose beautiful gams cause motorists to double-take as they line the highway bummung rides to the beach. . . . JACK GREEN proud of his Carol Sunday when she said "yes" to IRA KAPLAN. (You could have launched a yacht with the amount of champagne flowing. The new RVC Temple is a dream of an architectural creation.)

YOUR FREEPORTER . . . That mother-daughter combination which frequents joints along the "boulevard of broken dreams" better not complain too much about the antics at their rooming-house (south section of Freeport) because the gendarmes are already casing the joint and wise to all the shenanigans. . . . One good feature about JOE'S Central Barber Shop on South Main st. is the continued soothing music of his radio. (He likes good music.) . . . The new owners and operators (Hop Dok Food Corp.) of THE MANDARIN RESTAURANT (formerly Mitchell's) haven't spared the cost in making this location even more lovely. (The chandeliers are imported beauties.) . . . The Guest Register at Mildred Burton's LAMP (South Main near the R.R.) looks like a "Who's Who" of leading names from the sports, business, political and theatrical worlds. (Her personality and wonderful Italian food are the ace attractions.)

AROUND TOWN . . . BILL GOONAN, the thrilling voice of "Kiss Me Kate," "High Button Shoes" and Arthur Godfrey, works part-time in SID'S CANNON SQUARE LIQUOR SHOP. . . . (Have you noticed that the cannon on the square has been painted.) . . . He's tall, dark and handsome, I mean GEORGE BOULOUKOS, and yet he manages to remain one of the town's most eligible bachelors. . . . JOHNNY MORRISON top LEADER compositor proud of his VFW softball team and accepting all challenges. . . . MRS. JERRY WILLIAMS flying to the coast to summer with the DICK POWELLS in Hollywood. Mr. Dick, JUNE ALLISON, is his best friend and godmother to the Williams' help. (The Powells' cancelled adoption plans when June became enceinte.)

ARNOLD NICKELSBURG is the owner of the Freeport Monogramming Company on Pine st. (They embroider initials.)

EDITOR'S NOTES . . . HENRY SCHILLING of the Burton Shop joined the grandpop fraternity. THEODORE SPITZLER's son, Bob, in Freeport during his college vacation. (His school record of achievement is tops; he's talented both theatrically and journalistically.) . . . PAUL B. MOORE (his dad's real estate ED MOORE) was graduated from M.T. St. Mary's College in Maryland, and is now associated with a leading real estate firm. . . . SHIRLEY MAE WATTS, (her father's Superintendent of Freeport Parking Fields) and Navy vet George Samuel Thorne became husband and wife. . . . Street scenes: 12 year old TOBY ANN HYMAN and her 11-year-old friend JAY RICHARD PARIS learning how to fish and handle bait off George Berns' Pastime Dock (Woodcliff ave.) . . . JEWELER JERRY PARSIS was elected teacher. . . . JOHNNIE RUEITH (the Motician with THOM. QUINN CO.) buys a home in Freeport.

DURYEA ORCHID CREATIONS . . . There are two women in this fair Village of Freeport who, although in different fields of endeavor, have conscientiously and sincerely given their time and effort to help in their respective ways their respective causes. The first is the charming MRS. LOIS LORD, sister of our Mayor Bob Dosses. During the current Salvation Army Drive she has devoted her every moment and every thought to this cause. The other lovely lady is MRS. EDITH WILKIN, on Abe Segel's office staff, who in her own private way continues with her deeds of thoughtfulness and kindness. It is personalities like these that make women truly beautiful. It is a great pleasure to award prize DURYEA ORCHIDS as a token of public esteem to MRS. LOIS LORD and to MRS. EDITH WILKIN. May God Bless You and grant you all that life has to offer.

OFF THE CUFF . . . The MAJOR NEWTONS celebrated their 30th Wedding Anniversary June 18th. . . . THE WALLY CAMPBELLS their 32nd today. . . . Congratulations. . . . This is one for the books: It's worth a trip to the Mercy Hospital charity bazaar just to see Freeport Chevy axes. JOE GALLLO playing chef at the hot dog concession. (He's really quite an expert.) . . . DR. JOSEPH M. COHEN is now associated with Dr. David S. Goldstein at 116 W. Merrick rd. in the practice of general dentistry. (This is getting to be the professional lane of Freeport.) . . . More kids learn how to swim at the 60x150 CASINO POOL than in any other waters (even though we're so close to the world's best beaches. (Owner Murray Swartz plays "Uncle" to them all.)

WHERE CREDIT IS DUE . . . The Freeport Chamber of Commerce started its 1950 rejuvenated career with two strikes against it. Previous lack of cooperation made even the entused leaders feel dejected. However, Freeport's progressive merchants just wouldn't quit. They wouldn't let the Chamber of Commerce, which enjoys such a great reputation nationally, become a thing of the past. They decided to try again. To try again to keep this wonderful and necessary organization alive and active. And for what reason, surely not for personal gain. It meant sacrificing many hours to be spent in planning. Today the Freeport Chamber of Commerce has an enviable record of achievement. Its efforts have brought new enterprise and new people to our village. President Joseph Goldblatt recently played host to Massachusetts Senator J. Francis Giblyn who stated: I've traveled through many states during this survey that I'm conducting for my state and Freeport rates in my estimation as one of the best. You have everything here that's needed to make a model community. Yes, we have everything . . . but what we need is a little more of its cooperation and the spirit of success. FREEPORT WILL BE BIGGER AND BETTER IN EVERYWAY!

Larsen Tells Rotary Why Legion Opposes Hoover Board Proposals

C. Howard Larsen, a past commander of William Clinton Story Post, A. L., who is slated to be elected County commander at the Nassau County Legion Convention to be held in Freeport Saturday addressed the Rotary Club at its meeting Thursday night in the Elks clubhouse. He explained why the American Legion is opposed to the carrying out of the Hoover Commission's recommendations that the activities of the Federal Veterans Bureau be divided among a number of bureaus.

Mr. Larsen said that while the American Legion was not opposed to the recommendations in the report, it "does, however, oppose most strenuously that section of the Hoover report which would divide the Veterans Administration which has proven itself for more than 20 years to be the most efficient of all large government agencies, into five or more separate bureaus, some of them purely experimental and certainly more costly to the taxpayers of the United States."

He pointed out that the Administration "was created by recommendation of Herbert Hoover himself when he was president of the United States."

"Mr. Hoover, then President," he continued, "saw that in 1929 that in the interest of efficiency, economy, more uniform administration and better definition of national policies, the Veterans Bureau, the Pension Bureau and the National Home for Volunteer Soldiers should be brought into a single agency."

"But what has the Hoover Commission suggested?" he asked. "It proposes that the major functions of the Veterans Administration be split up into five or more agencies!"

"It recommends," he continued, "that hospital and medical attention be turned over to a new experimental bureau, a United Medical Administration; that hospital construction be transferred to the Department of the Interior; that all insurance matters be handled by another new and experimental agency, a Veterans Insurance Corporation; that home loans be taken care of by a Housing and Home Finance Agency, and that only the lesser veteran benefits remain under the charge of the Veterans Administration."

"Emasculation of this most efficient of all large government agencies into five separate federal bureaus, as proposed," Mr. Larsen declared, "would not only be a stunning blow to our veterans, particularly the disabled. It also would entail an additional drain on America's already overburdened taxpayers."

"If such an emasculation should conceivably be adopted by the Congress, the pushing around plight of our veterans in 1920 would be only a circumstance to the bewildering chaos into which our veterans of today and tomorrow would again be plunged," Mr. Larsen contended.

"The American Legion will fight to the last ditch to prevent a recurrence of the infamous Economy Act of 1933. That part part of the Hoover report dealing with the veterans proposes to repeat the Economy Act on any even greater scale. It would divorce all veterans from their identity as veterans, dismember the Veterans Administration, take their hospitals from bed-ridden veterans, deprive all veterans of fare and rights of veterans, and preference in government employment—leave the dependents of those who ment, leave the 19,000,000 veterans fell in battle at the mercy of the nation without a unified service agency, and centralize all government responsibility for the well-being of our veterans in a bureaucratic red tape!"

President Ray E. Clements presided at the meeting.

Cynthia Smith Graduated From Northfield School
Mr. and Mrs. Sherman C. Holaday, 155 Wallace St., went to East Northfield, Mass. over a recent week end to attend the graduation exercises of their granddaughter, Cynthia Smith, from Northfield School. Miss Smith was a member of a cast made up of girls from Northfield and boys from Mount Hermon which gave a performance of the "Mikado" on Saturday night. The commencement exercises were held Sunday morning, when Miss Smith, who has spent four years at the Moody School, received her diploma. The Freeport girl has been a member of the school choir during all her years at the institution. She plans to enter Oberlin College in Ohio in the fall. Miss Smith and her mother, Mrs. Zella H. Smith, have gone to Nantucket, R.I., to spend the summer.

Most Valuable Player Awards Made To F.H.S. Team Members

The most valuable players on the various teams of the Freeport High School received awards at the annual spring sports assembly held recently in the school.

Jack Plunkett and Tom Malinowski, the diamond co-captains, paced the lost of baseball lettermen. The M.V.P. award was presented to Plunkett, who is a member of the South Shore all-scholastic squad. The track lettermen were headed by Ed O'Malley and John Cleary, co-captains and ace cindermen. Both registered points in the recent Nassau County championships. The M.V.P. trophy was awarded to O'Malley.

Jack Plunkett, president of the Girls' Athletic Association, presided over the annual Girls' Sports Assembly, at which awards were presented to girls who had earned them during the year.

Mary Cleary, vice-president, explained the point system of awards and presented the first awards, class numerals, to the girls. Miss Thies presented the second awards, shields, which require 250 points. Miss Thies presented the third awards, letters, requiring 400 points. Marie Ferro, G.O. Representative, presented the gold keys, the fourth award, requiring 600 points, to those seniors who had earned them. Keys which are considered the highest honor a girl can attain in sports, were presented to Barbara Cruze, Eleanor Henningsen, June Johnson, Miss Lenker, Miss Thies and Miss Cleary. Miss Cleary, who broke all girls' sports records in Freeport High, earned 850 points and, for this, had her name engraved on a silver plaque which is the greatest honor possible in girls' sports.

The new student leaders were announced by Miss Henningsen, treasurer. They are: Rose Ann Cleary, Barbara Corethy, Joan Cossio, Evelyn Cronk, Patricia Bliss, Cynthia Rigby and Jane Yarrow. Gold awards were then given to seniors who have served as student leaders for two or more years as follows: Miss Johnson, Miss Cleary, Miss Henningsen, and Roberta Gray.

Following these presentations Miss Thies announced next year's Athletic Association officers. They are Joyce Day, president; Carol Clark, vice-president; Carol Munkelt, secretary; Ann DiGesù, treasurer; and Jane Wilson, G.O. Representative. Peggy then presented gifts to Miss Dorothy Clark and Mrs. Doris Falkowski, physical education instructor.

The assembly closed with the class song and the Alma Mater by the seniors.

Dolores Ka man has been selected as editor-in-chief of the 1950-51 Voyageur Staff, Miss F. L. Albert of the English Department, the new advisor, announced this week.

Mass. Senator Gibney Compliments Northwest

Most Beautiful Home Section, He Comments In Talk in Home State

J. Francis Gibney, Massachusetts State Senator, who recently completed a tour of leading Atlantic states, paid high honor to Freeport's Northwest district when he referred to it as a model American residential section.

Senator Gibney is one of Massachusetts' most popular speakers on civic activity. He has addressed associations in nearly every city and village of the Bay State. His tour in New York was for the purpose of surveying road, residential, business, parking field and expansion projects. He was a guest of President Joseph Goldblatt of the Freeport Chamber of Commerce at a dinner given at Guy Lombardo's East Point House.

In his speech before a civic group in Webster, Mass., the Senator said: "I have just returned from Freeport, Long Island, where I personally saw some of the most beautiful residential areas in America. I was particularly impressed with their Northwest section which is comparable to the beautiful home section of any city. Freeport is progressive. It is a village nearing 30,000 inhabitants, and yet in its planning it is establishing the happy medium of being a residential paradise while encouraging the

Shubert School Sixth Graders Gather For Their Final Assembly

Sixty-one seventh grade students participated in their final chapel program at Shubert School in Baldwin Thursday afternoon. To the music of the school orchestra playing "The Graduate" under the direction of Miss Ruth Lounsbury, the departing pupils filed into the auditorium to hear an address by Dr. Henry C. Ducker, superintendent of the Baldwin public schools.

An award was made to the seventh year girls' softball team for bringing the Gold Team to victory on Saturday, June 3, at Plaza School Field. Ellen Adel received the award as team captain from a member of the Kiwanis Club. She then presented it to Mrs. Lawrence C. O'Connor, the principal.

After the reading of the class history by Roberta Young, the graduating class sang its own rendition of "Aloha-Oe" as a final tribute to its Alma Mater.

"The Art Clubs from Shubert, Lenox, Plaza and Coolidge schools went to Manhattan to visit the Metropolitan Museum of Art, recently. The trip was under the supervision of Mrs. Jean O'Donnell. After visiting the museum, the group spent some time at the Central Park Zoo. In the party were:

Shubert—Anita Hermsdorf, Maureen Mahry, Susan Garrett, Barbara Stein, Christine Nelson, Laurel Seikel, Barbara Turner, Janet Gotzmer, Judy Snedeker, Robert Schwab, John Brugge, Leon Koyr, Neil Hirschfeld and Arthur Resnick.

Plaza—Charles Swenson, Dick Morse, Camilla Roeder, Susanne Ailich, Bill Hodges, Nadia Snedeker and William Drail.

Lenox—Matthew Bernius, Judy Ma

BASIL STAROS GRADUATED FROM CALIFORNIA TECH

PASADENA, Cal., June 22.—Basil Staros, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Staros, 299 Maryland ave., Freeport, N.Y., received the degree of aeronautical engineer from the California Institute of Technology at the recent commencement exercises. He is a graduate of Massachusetts Institute of Technology and majored in Aeronautics.

Throng at Hearing

Benjamin Mintz appearing for one of the owners who donated property for the Grove at parking field, asked if these donors would receive credit for the land they ceded to the village. He was assured they would be.

Henry J. Halterman, Jr., representing the Benson Corp., which owns the Big Ben building on South Main st., along side which there is a parking field, pointed out that it was being used as a public field and also asked for consideration. Albert Lyons made a similar appeal for the Food Fair Store which has constructed two parking fields.

Edwin J. Freedman, appearing for several property owners, disagreed with the plan for dividing the assessment area into zones, which he contended was inequitable. He said this didn't reflect the value of the property and insisted the only equitable method to follow was to base the assessments on the value of the properties as improved regardless of its distance from a parking field.

"If you change the manner of assessment," he asserted, "you'll benefit the home owner and the small gas station owner."

Others appeared for various individual property owners and all were promised their pleas would receive consideration before final action was taken.

State Grants $1,519 For Youth Work Here

Freeport has been granted $1,519 as state aid by the New York State Youth Commission, for the fiscal year beginning May 1, Mayor Robert L. Duxsee announced today.

According to word received from Albany, the village's application for the renewal of the recreation project has been approved by the commission. The village proposes to spend $4,400 during the year and the state grant is a partial reimbursement of this amount.

Warren F. Millard is chairman of the Youth Recreation Project Committee which administers the program and Patrolman Joseph Romelka is the director.

Coolidge School P.T.A. Honors Mrs. Irving Cahn

Mrs. Irving Cahn, of Freeport, retiring president of the Calvin Coolidge School (Baldwin) Parent-Teacher Association, was presented a silver tea service, at the annual dinner given to the faculty in Sunrise Village, Baldwin, Thursday evening.

The gift was a token of appreciation for her work as head of the organization for two years.

Mrs. Earl C. Arthur and a committee had charge of the arrangements. Music for dancing and entertainment were provided by the Sunrise Village.

Board Holds Hearings

Charles P. Buckley, Jr., appearing for the applicant, explained that the area involved extended from the property of the Freeport Yacht Club, 250 feet along the east side of South Grove st. to Jefferson. He showed drawings of store buildings, each 100 feet long, to be separated by a 50-foot entrance to a parking field in the rear it was proposed to erect. He asserted property on the west side of the street was devoted to business in existence before the Freeport Zoning Ordinance was adopted, and therefore there should be no objection to having business on the other side of the street.

Numerous speakers in opposition, included W. E. Watson, president of the Atlantic-South, Tredwell H. Hopkins, former president; John Henneman, Julius Auserehl, Albert Auserehl, George Versfelt, George E. Sarant and Wallace Hardgrove. They insisted there was no need for additional business property in the section, as stores could be erected on Hudson ave., which is only a block away.

Mr. Buckley, however, insisted Hudson ave., was zoned for industry, and to build stores there would defeat the purpose for which the street was intended. This was denied by opponents of the application. Mayor Robert L. Duxsee promised the arguments advanced by both sides would be taken into consideration before the board took final action.

Esther Mendelsohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Mendelsohn, 25 Oxford dr., was graduated from Barnard College, of Columbia University with the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Baldwin DeMolay Chapter Has Party at Jones Beach

The beach party given by Baldwin Chapter, Order of DeMolay, at Jones Beach Saturday proved an enjoyable affair. It was largely attended. Raymond Bayard and Robert Miller, who comprised the committee in charge, were complimented on the success of the event.

The second degree will be conferred on a class of candidates Saturday night at a meeting in the Baldwin Masonic Temple. Those in the group are Edward Everett and Frederick Rose, of Freeport; Kenneth Hamilton and Robert Enstam, of Oceanside; Henry Owens, of North Merrick, and Peter Stockey, of Baldwin.

A cake sale is to be held in the temple Saturday night, June 30.

Dog Warden Contract Approved by State

The New York State Agriculture and Markets Department in Albany has approved the contract entered into by the Incorporated Village of Freeport and the Long Island Humane and Dog Protective Association, Inc., James H. Cruikshank, the president, announced today.

As a result, Mr. Cruikshank added, the Society will start picking up dogs in Freeport on July 1. Animals picked up will be held at the society's shelter, Hanse ave., and Ryder pl., for five days. At the conclusion of that time unclaimed animals will be offered for adoption. Before a dog may be given out for adoption the society requires that the new owner go to the Municipal Building and take out a 1950 license tag.

Priest at H. N. S. Breakfast, Charges U. S. Repudiated Palestine Mandate

The Rev. John Anderson, for 15 years a Jesuit missionary in the Moslem sections of Egypt, Palestine and Iran, accused the Government in Washington of repudiating its stand in favor of the inter-nationalization of Jerusalem in a talk given at the annual fathers' and sons' communion breakfast of Our Holy Redeemer Holy Name Society in the Elks club house.

He told of how the League of Nations on Nov. 29, 1947, issued a mandate making an area 250 square miles an inter-national city. The war between the Jews and the Arabs followed and now Father Anderson said the Jews are in possession of the part of Jerusalem and the Arabs the rest.

He said of the situation that existed last Christmas when he said pilgrims to the city were subjected to indignities and expressed the opinion that the only way to clear up the situation was to carry out the terms of the mandate. Despite the fact that President Truman of Israel has come to the United States to see President Harry S. Truman and advocated the imposition of the mandate, the State Department, Father Anderson continued, has reversed its attitude and refused to

Sports

Bill Ashley's CORNER

Now that our scholastic sports season has finished a column of this type finds difficulty in continuing so far the next few weeks, at least, it will not be published. However, as fall is not so far off as it seems and as this is the time that much of the preparation for football takes place, it might not be out of place for some notes on our gridiron game such as those that follow:

Dear Parent:

Your son has shown interest in Freeport football and is a candidate for one of our teams.

As his strongest router, you will want to help him achieve the best possible results and to get as much out of this activity as it offers. Football is an exceptionally strenuous and exacting game and will make demands on your boy that will require him to be in the best of physical condition if he is to represent you, himself and his school, to the best of his ability. He is coming out for football voluntarily and should be willing to pay the price of being selected to represent Freeport. You can help him by understanding what our training regulations are and why we have them.

He should receive nine hours of sleep daily and is expected to be in the house at ten every night except Saturday. If possible he should pay some attention to diet, eating normally but avoiding heavy indigestible foods. Naturally alcohol in any form is out as is smoking. If he can't make these sacrifices we feel that he should look elsewhere for his activity as experience has shown that a boy who won't give these up very seldom comes through when the chips are down.

We are glad to have your boy with us and know that he will profit a great deal from this game.

Hoping to see you at the games this fall.

THE FREEPORT COACHING STAFF

The above is a copy of a letter that goes out to our squad members' parents and it was suggested to me that some of you might be interested in it as well as in an account of what we are trying to accomplish in Freeport football.

Those of us who have been in the game for a while know that there is a lot of education in football that you don't get in the class room and that it can make a definite contribution to a modern educational program that has for its aim "preparation for life."

We, and by we, I mean all those people who are in back of our present program such as our school administration, and the entire coaching staff, feel that football is one of the influences that offset many of the undesirable characteristics we hear mentioned so often in connection with some of our young people. The boys to whom football appeals, are boys with lots of drive and "pep" and need a competitive, contact sport to which to give their energy and ideals.

Naturally we don't always achieve our aims in coaching any more than the classroom does. Not all boys playing football learn the lessons of team play, sportsmanship and team loyalty, but I'm sure they learn what hard work feels like. They learn that they must get up after being knocked down, they learn to keep going when they want to quit and they learn that they can't have their cake and eat it too. At times these are pretty tough lessons to swallow but the boys who really stick it out will back me up when I say that in the end there is no game like it and that it is a true saying that football will always give more to an individual than any body will ever give football.

Football as the most highly developed of American scholastic sports comes in for a lot of criticism and some of it may be justified. However many of the game's detractors need to understand more about the activity which unfortunately most of them know of only in the most casual way. It seems to me that proof of the value of this sport lies in its increasing growth and in its lasting popularity with the American public who in the long run has a pretty fair idea of what it wants in its youth.

From time to time during the summer months we send out information to our squad members in the form of letters from the coaches. Some of these might be of interest to our fans and may be published later.

Jewelers to Take On Murray Girls Sunday

Hold First Place By 2 Games After Defeats Handed Nutmeg, Hollis

With a record of 7 victories in as many starts, the Forest Jewellers will take on the improved Murray Girls of Cedarhurst in an American Girls Baseball Conference game at the Municipal Stadium Sunday night at 8:30. The Freeport group is now holding first place by the comfortable margin of 2 games as a result of having beaten the Hollis Girls on their home grounds Friday night by a 17 to 0 count, and taken a second game from the Stamford Nutmegs Sunday in Stamford by a 1 to 1 score.

Sunday night the Jewelers defeated the Jersey All-Stars by a 5 to 1 count at the Stadium in a non-league game.

Ruth Zimmerman again pitched the Freeporters to victory in the Sunday afternoon contest which was won in the ninth inning. She struck out 11 batters and walked four. Though found for six hits, she kept them scattered, and the only run scored against her was the result of an error.

The Jewelers tallied a run in the first inning, when Ethel Kinz singled, stole second, went to third on an out and was squeezed in on Miss Zimmerman's bunt. The home team tied the count in the third after Dolly Barton muffed Carol Green's fly. The runner advanced to third on two counts and scored when Doris O'Connell doubled. An error gave the Jewelers the victory in the ninth. Joan Pepper singled, stole second, went on to third on an out and counted when Jo Jo Ottaviano at third, fumbled Ethel Flohn's grounder.

Sunday night Elsie Bartels would have scored a shutout against the All Stars but for three errors, one by herself, in the fifth, as she held the visitors to three hits, while the locals were collecting seven.

Two Freeporters Get Degrees from Hobart

GENEVA, N.Y., June 22—Christine Anne Ricker, 208 Pennsylvania Ave., and Francis J. Wille, 243 Southside Ave., Freeport, N.Y., were awarded their baccalaureate degrees at commencement exercises of Hobart and William Smith Colleges. Miss Ricker is the daughter of Mrs. Charlets Ricker and was graduated from Freeport High School in 1946. She completed the requirements for her bachelor of arts degree with dean's list grades last February.

Mr. Wille, a classmate of Miss Ricker at Freeport High School, is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Patterson. He is a member of Epiphany P. Sigma, national scientific honor society and specialized in chemistry to qualify for his bachelor of science degree at Hobart.
